

Punctuation work

Page one

You must read the sentences and draw a picture showing all the information. Work out whether or not the statements show strong feeling. If they do, they need an exclamation mark, if they don't then they need a full stop.

Notts County are about to be relegated!

I could see the grass in my garden.

The car is on the road and there are traffic lights.

Somebody let me out of this cage

The last ever snow leopard was shot at

Mr Jones rides his bike to the shops after school

Then the dragon breathed fire onto the castle

A yellow triangle is beside the blue circle

Punctuation work

You must read the sentences and draw a picture showing all the information. Work out whether or not the statements show strong feeling. If they do, they need an exclamation mark, if they don't then they need a full stop.

Notts County are about to be relegated!

I could see the grass in my garden.

I can see trees from my window

When I left the shop, I saw that my bike was gone

The gorilla just came out of nowhere

I saw two pigeons on the school fence

Venus is the second planet from the Sun

I read my book in my garden in the sunshine