Evaluating my clock

This evaluation should take place when you have finished making your clock.

A drawing of my finished clock

My clock looks a lot/a bit/not much like the drawing I did before I started. The hardest part of making my clock was Colour in the stars to evaluate your clock. Five stars mean it's perfect, one star means.... Well you get the idea!

Stylishness

Robustness

Easy to read

Fun to make

Quick to assemble
