

Oh hello again boys and girls, it's me The Naughty Bus. I have some exciting news, there is a brand new bus for me to play with. But sadly, he needs some colour because he's a bit boring. Can you help?

Wow, the new bus is so cool.
I can't wait for him to get out on the road.
Oh wait, he needs to know where to go. Can you make a bus route plan for him?

Buses need a route to know where they are going. They might have a different route every day. Can you plan a route for the new bus?

Think of some places your bus could travel to, I have given you one to get you started.

Plan a bus route for your bus, use some of the locations you have written down. It must go to at least 3 different places.

Don't forget to make it different every day.
