

My Family

Families are different because some families speak different languages. Families are different because they have different hopes. Families are different because they have different sized family trees. Families are different because they have different allergies and can get angry for different reasons.

My family are not cristyan. My family have three pets one dog, one cat and some non step

fish. I dont have any allergies but my family members do. I am half cristyan but my family members are not. I have one step dad and one step mum.

I have probly
got thousands of families to gather to mak e my giant
family tree.

My daddy
works for the best vinegar
in the world!

My step dad
loans about space. My unckall Skot is a stint man. My unckall has a front garden about the the size of the links of a grass.
My granddad once got me a big chocolate bar. My sister likes to pull her socks of. My sister loves sandy the toadly.
