Story Detectives

I can use clues in the pictures to work out key events and characters.

Take a close look at the first picture in our new book. What questions would you like to ask about what you can see? Write them below, I've started you off with the first question I had.

Why is he lying on the floor?

I eventually settled for watching the birds from the ground.

It wasn't the same, but it was better than nothing.

Then one day, an idea flew by...

Here is a page from the book. Read the text carefully and look closely at the picture. What information do you now know about the character? Maybe there are some clues about where the story is set?
