

What do you think the character is up to in these pictures? What clues can you see? Can you write your ideas using 'because' to give a reason behind your thoughts.

These are the final two pictures in the book. Can you see anything in them that might give you more information about the story? Write a couple of sentences to predict what the story is going to be about and why you think that based on the clues you have seen.