

Thursday 28th January

Quarter past and quarter to

Look closely at the hands to help you read the clocks. Remember each side of the clock is split in half for the minute hand. When working out the hour remember to think about which number the hour hand has gone past or which number the hour hand is moving to next.

