

26.01.21

I can find descriptive language

Descriptive language is used to describe what something or someone looks like. We often use adjectives to help us describe a noun (a person, place or thing). The Bog Baby is described in many different ways. Using the story to help you, can you find descriptive language about the Bog Baby?

