Caring for others (community)

Caring for others is so important, especially at the moment. Although, it can be really difficult to know how you can support or care for someone.

Write a list of lots of different ways you could care for someone in your community.

Challenge: design a poster that says 'Thank You' to a group of people who are working hard during this difficult time. You might want to thank the NHS, the workers at supermarkets, The Police, The Fire department, the people who collect your bins or Mum and Dad, who love and support you.
