

I thoroughly enjoyed reading your opinions about the Human Rights we looked at last week. It sounds like some really good discussions were had – thank you adults at home! This week, we're carrying on with the same theme but thinking about if you have a right to something, there is often a responsibility that comes with it.

For your first activity, read the statements and decide whether it's something you have a right to, or whether it's something that you have a responsibility for. If you would like to add any comments about any discussion points you have had with an adult then please feel free to add them in!

	Right	Responsibility
To be treated kindly
To ask for help
To be kind
To go to school
To be listened to
Not to bully others
To feel safe at school
To have breaks at school
To help others

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/topics/zvypmfr/articles/z7bfhbk> - BBC bitesize article on rules and responsibility...there's a weirdly catchy song/rap and lots of information to read to get you thinking and ready for the questions...

At school, you all have the right to learn. If it's a right for you, it's also a right for everyone else around you. What can you do in the classroom to be responsible and respect everyone's right to learn?

What responsibilities do you have to the people around you?

What responsibilities do you have to your friends?

What responsibilities do you have at school?

What responsibilities do you have at home?
