

Year 4 Writing Mat

Makes sure you have used all of these tools to help you write to the best of your ability

Fronted Adverbials
Above the clouds, Between the sea and the sky, Everywhere he looked, As quick as a flash, In the blink of an eye,	After a while, Before long, Unexpectedly, Bravely, Courageously, Immediately, Paragraphs!

Adjectives
colossal gigantic enormous humongous gargantuan immense	breath-taking ferocious magnificent scenic anxious terrifying

Prepositions
beneath the sea below the rocks in the cold water	during the night before morning as the sun rose

Drop in an 'ing' clause

- , running frantically,
- , staring blankly,
- , creeping slowly,
- , tumbling loudly,

Be the best
you can be.

Aa .!?

Start with a simile

Louder than a stampede
of elephants,
Like a thunderstorm,

Action sentence of three

I ran, jumped and hurdled over the fence.

The boy leaped into the air, grabbed hold of a branch and clung on for dear life.

Makes sure you read
your work to check it
makes sense!