

Do you know about congruent shapes?
Congruent shapes are shapes that have exactly the same length of sides and the same angles.

These two shapes are congruent, even though one is turned round a little. They have the same length sides and the same angles.

Find pairs of shapes that are congruent in this group:
(You might find tracing paper helpful.)

