

22.02.21

The importance of a library

Create a poster convincing someone to go to the library. Try to think about what libraries have to offer and why they are important. Think about all the fantastic books you can borrow and read for free from the library. Remember that posters should always be colourful and grab your attention.

