

Thursday 11th February

On Our Walk

Use your planning and the writing frame provided to have a go at your own poem. You will find 2 of my examples at the bottom to give you some more ideas. Remember it doesn't need to rhyme but if you can, that would be excellent.

On our walk this morning, will we pass _____

Where _____

"What if," Mummy wonders, "_____?"

What if _____?"

We can _____

We _____

My Examples

On our walk this morning, will we pass the sandy beach?

Where people swim and beach balls float high out of reach.

“What if,” Mummy wonders, “the waves crash over a boat?”

What if the crabs eat dinner at a restaurant that can float?

We can smell the ice-cream being eaten on the shore.

We swim along with shark fins keeping an eye out for our prey.

On our walk this morning, will we pass the noisy farm?

Where animals play outside all day and a cockerel is your alarm.

“What if,” Mummy wonders, “the animals could speak?”

What if they all escaped and went on holiday for the week?

We can hear the tractor thundering in the field,

We gallop through the muddy puddles hoping our wellingtons are sealed.