

04.03.21

I can choose a book for my video call.

What sits behind you on a video call can sometimes be really interesting. Some people sit in the kitchen, others sit in the living room and some like to sit in front of books. What book would you have behind you on a video call? It must be a book you love and are proud of. Draw the front cover below and tell me about your book choice.

