

02.03.21

Using and improving my talent

Having a talent is amazing but we also need to make sure we keep practising so that our talent can become something special.

I want you to think about what you need for your talent- a football or ballet shoes and then, how can you improve your talent?
