

Week 5: Thursday - Writing up our Survivor story beginning.

Mr Jones explains how to write the beginning of your survivors story on Vimeo

Watch the video on Vimeo, look at the check list below and reread the start of some Survivor stories before you start!

SURVIVORS STORY STRUCTURE

BEGINNING	MIDDLE	END
The start of the story explains: The when, who, what, when, where and why. When did this happen? Who is involved in the story? Where does it take place? What do we know about the person and the place? Why are they there? Thursday 4th Feb	The middle of the story explains: The disaster. How the crash/collision/explosion/ice forming/avalanche/getting lost actually happened. The sensory experience (Sights, sounds smells) The damage to your character (injuries) The immediate dangers they face (dehydration) Monday 8th Feb	How they use their physical strength to help their situation (a long journey/climbing/swimming etc). How they use mental strength to help their situation (build shelter/send for help/visualize being safe at home). Who rescues them/how they reach safety. What they learned. Did they ever go exploring again? Tuesday 9th Feb
