

There Are No Such Things As Monster!!!

By Roger Stevens

There's no such thing as the toast monster
Who lives on crumbs and bread

There's no such thing as the fluff monster
Who lives underneath your bed

There's no such thing as the U bend monster
Who lives beneath the sink

There's no such thing as the fridge monster
Who jumps out when you need a drink

There's no such thing as the wardrobe monster
Who comes out to play when it's dark

There's no such thing as the lost ball monster
Who eats lost balls in the park

There's no such thing as the vacuum cleaner monster
Who lives under the stairs

There's no such thing as the toy box monster
Who scares your teddy bears

There's no such thing as the toilet monster
Who lives inside the loo

There's no such thing as monsters.
And there's NOT one behind you.

Look!

BOO!!!
