

Class 3 Learning Letter Summer 2

I can't quite believe I am writing the final learning letter of the year...where has the time gone?! Summer 1 was another success. We unravelled the turbulent life and times of Vincent van Gogh by recreating his infamous paintings and visiting the Immersive Experience in Leicester. I would just like to reiterate how proud I was of the children, representing Willow Brook on our trip. As scientists, we conducted our 'Room for Growth' experiment, which was a huge success, as well as designing and making our own greenhouses to plant sunflowers in. Our sporting morning at South Wolds for Top Link was enjoyed by all and a great taste of what's to come this half term with sports week fast approaching. Remember to check the school website for photos from our fun-filled half term.

Who Let the Gods Out?

This half term, we will be entering the world of Ancient Greece, where mythology intertwines with history and the spirit of competition reaches its pinnacle at the Olympic Games. We will be exploring and learning about the Olympian Gods and Goddesses including Zeus, Hera and Hermes. We will be reading, writing about and creating our own Greek Myths. The book 'Icarus was Ridiculous' will allow us to immerse ourselves even further into the topic.

I am so proud of the enthusiasm for reading this year, thank you for your continued support at home, it really does make a difference! Reading records and reading books still need to be in school daily. Homework will still be set Friday and will need to be returned the following Thursday unless otherwise stated. As always, any additional practicing of the times table/division facts for year 3 (2,3,4,5,8,10) at home is still incredibly valuable! Our weekly spelling test remains on a Friday. PE continues to be on Monday and Tuesday but please have PE kit in school daily so that we can make the most of the sunshine and get outdoors.

If you have any concerns or queries regarding anything on here or otherwise, please don't hesitate to catch me on the playground or leave a note in reading records.

Miss Adams 😊
