

Willow Brook Primary School Complaints Procedure

February 2016

Review Date: Feb 2020

Introduction

Willow Brook Primary School endeavours to provide the best education possible for all of its pupils in an open and transparent environment. We welcome any feedback that we receive from parents, pupils and third parties, and we accept that not all of this will be positive. Where concerns are raised the school intends for these to be dealt with:

- Fairly
- Openly
- Promptly
- Without Prejudice

In order to do so, the governing board of Willow Brook Primary School has approved the following procedure which explains what you should do if you have any concerns about the school. All members of staff will be familiar with the procedure and will be able to assist you.

Which procedure do I need?

Sometimes, when concerns are more specific, there are alternative and more appropriate policies for dealing with them. The following list details specific topics of complaints, and the correct policy to refer to. You can access these policies on the school website or ask for a copy from the main school reception.

- Pupil admissions; please see the school's admissions policy or contact Nottinghamshire County Council.
- Pupil exclusions; please see the school's Behaviour Policy and Nottinghamshire County Council guidance.
- Staff grievance, capability or disciplinary; these are covered by the school's staff management procedures, which are Nottinghamshire County Council model procedures.
- Where the complaint concerns a third party used by the school; please complain directly to the third party themselves.
- Anonymous complaints – please refer to the Whistleblowing and Confidential Reporting Policy.
- Subject Access Requests and Freedom of Information Requests – please see the school's Data Protection and Freedom of Information policy

Raising concerns

The majority of concerns can be dealt with without resorting to the procedure. Where you have a concern about any aspect of the school or your child's education or wellbeing, raise this with your child's class teacher via the phone, email or in person. Ideally, they will be able to address your concerns on the spot, or can arrange a meeting with you to discuss the issue.

All concerns will be dealt with confidentially, although the staff member may need to take notes if they feel that the matter may need to be taken further or it may arise again in the future. Any such notes will be kept in accordance with the principles of the Data Protection Act 1998. However, such notes would be able to be used to as evidence if further investigation was required, or if the concern became a formal complaint.

Safeguarding

Wherever a complaint indicates that a child's wellbeing or safety is at risk, the school is under a duty to report this immediately to the local authority. Any action taken will be in accordance with the school's Child Protection Policy, available from the school office or on the school website.

Social Media

In order for complaints to be resolved as quickly and fairly as possible, Willow Brook Primary School requests the complainants do not discuss complaints publically via social media such as Facebook or Twitter. Complaints will be dealt with confidentially for those involved, and we expect complainants to observe confidentiality also.

Complaints that result in staff capability or disciplinary

If at any formal stage of the complaint it is determined that staff disciplinary or capability proceedings are necessary in order to resolve the issue, the details of this action will remain confidential to the headteacher. The complainant is entitled to be informed that action is being taken and the eventual outcome of any such action, but they are not entitled to participate in the proceedings or receive any detail about them.

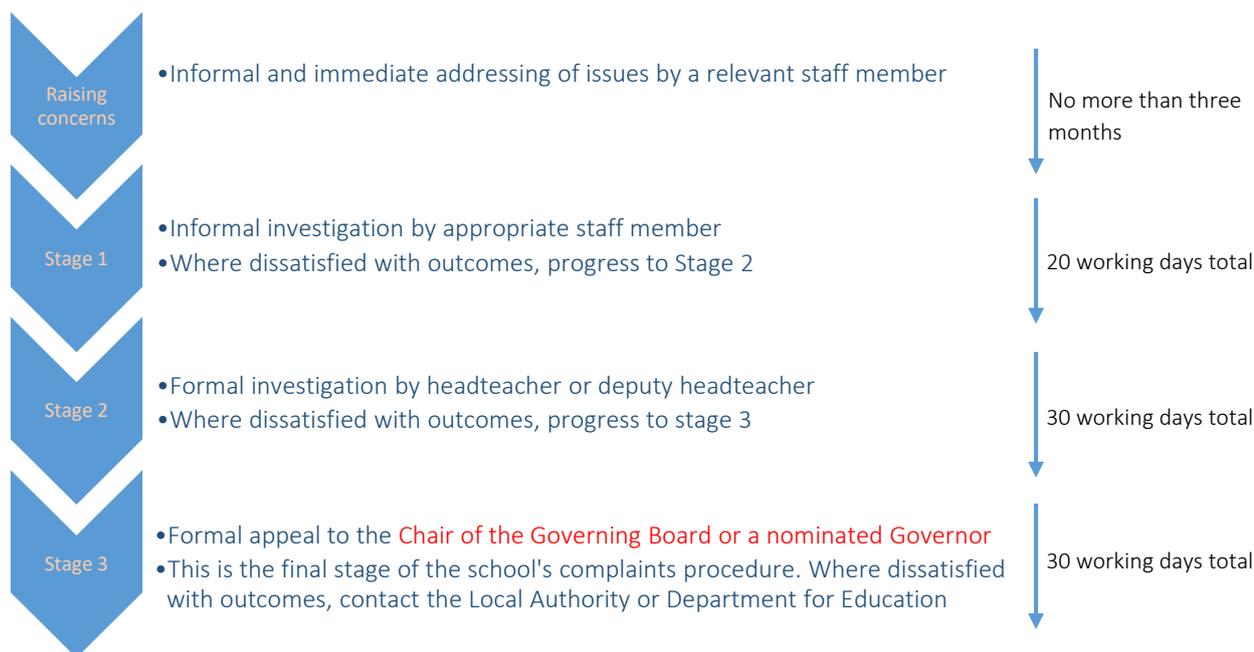

If a complaint is made about the Head Teacher at Willow Brook this will be overseen by the Chair of Governors or a member of the Governing Board, again confidentiality will apply.

If a complaint is made about a Governor the chair of Governors or another member of the Governing Board will be overseen and managed by another Governor.

Procedure

If you need to raise an issue in the first instance, please do so with the relevant member of staff who will be happy to talk to you and seek to establish a solution. If you are not satisfied with this response and believe the issue has not been resolved, please use the following procedure as detailed below.

Timeline

Timeframes

Willow Brook Primary School will endeavour to abide by timeframes stated under each stage but acknowledges that in some circumstances, this is not always possible due to the complexity of information needed to review a complaint or difficulties regarding individual's availability to deal with the complaint, for example. If it becomes apparent that it is not possible to complete any stage of the complaints procedure within a given timeframe, the individual responsible for handling the complaint will contact the complainant as soon as possible and come to an agreed timeframe that works for all parties involved.

Willow Brook Primary School reserves the right not to investigate complaints that have been made three months after the subject of the complaint took place, except in exceptional circumstances. What is meant by exceptional circumstances is where new evidence has come to light, where the complaint is of an especially serious matter or where there is reasonable justification for why the complainant has been unable to raise the complaint before this time. The HT will review the situation and decide whether or not to enact the complaints procedure, informing the chair of governors of the decision.

Who should I approach?

Educational matters: class teacher

Pastoral care: class teacher

Disciplinary matters: class teacher

Financial/Administration matters: headteacher or office manager

Complaint about a staff member's conduct: direct approach to the staff member themselves. Where this does not resolve the situation, the headteacher or deputy headteacher should be approached.

Complaints about the headteacher or the governors

Where a complaint regards the headteacher, the complainant should first directly approach the headteacher in an attempt to resolve the issue informally. If the complainant is not satisfied with this outcome they should notify the chair of governors (see contact details at the end of the document). The Stage 2 process will then commence, but with the chair of governors as the individual responsible for the investigation rather than the headteacher or deputy headteacher.

Where a complaint regards a governor, the same process applies as for the headteacher. Where a complaint concerns the Chair of Governors, the individual should contact the vice chair of governors. Informal resolution will be sought, but where this fails, the complaints procedure at Stage 3 will take immediate effect. The vice chair or an independent investigator will mediate any proceedings.

Stages of the Complaint

Stage 1 – Informal investigation by a staff member

Where as a result of raising a concern the complainant still feels that the issue has not been addressed, or where the outcome has been that the complaint needs further investigation than can be resolved briefly, they may progress by making an informal complaint. In doing so, the following steps will be followed:

1. Complainant contacts the relevant staff member.
2. The complainant must explain in writing
 - An overview of the complaint so far
 - who has been involved
 - why the complaint remains unresolved
 - action they would like to be taken to put things right.
3. The relevant staff member will respond within 5 working days (excluding those which fall in the school holidays) of having received the written complaint. They will explain what action they intend to take.
4. Where the complaint is about a member of staff or a school governor, the staff member will arrange an informal mediation meeting between the two parties to see if a resolution can be achieved.
5. The staff member will provide a written confirmation of the outcome of their investigation within 15 working days (excluding those which fall in the school holidays) of having sent confirmation of the intended action. Where the complainant is not satisfied with the outcome, they are able to progress to stage 2 of the complaints process, and launch a formal written complaint.
6. The staff member will make a record of the concern and the outcomes of the discussion which will be held centrally for twelve months, in line with the principles of the Data Protection Act 1998

Stage 2 – formal investigation by headteacher or deputy headteacher

1. The complainant may submit a formal complaints form to the headteacher or deputy headteacher. See the end of the procedure for their contact details and for a copy of this form.
2. The headteacher or deputy headteacher will respond in writing within 10 working days (excluding those that fall in the school holidays) of the date of receipt of the complaint to acknowledge receipt of the complaint and explain what action will be taken, giving clear timeframes.

3. A log of all correspondence in relation to the complaint will be kept in accordance with the Data Protection Principles.
4. The headteacher or deputy headteacher will consider all relevant evidence; this may include but is not limited to:
 - a statement from the complainant,
 - where relevant a statement from an individual who is the subject of the complaint
 - any previous correspondence regarding the complaint
 - any supporting documents in either case
 - interview with anyone related to the complaint.
5. The headteacher or deputy headteacher may decide to have a meeting with the complainant (and where relevant, the subject of the complaint) if they feel that it would be appropriate for the investigation.
6. After considering the available evidence, the headteacher or deputy headteacher can:
 - Uphold the complaint and direct that certain action be taken to resolve it
 - Reject the complaint and provide the complainant with details of the stage three appeals process
 - Uphold the complaint in part: in other words, the headteacher or deputy headteacher may find one aspect of the complaint to be valid, but not another aspect. They may direct for certain action to be taken to resolve the aspect that they find in favour of the complainant.
7. The headteacher or deputy headteacher must inform the complainant of their decision in writing within 20 working days (excluding those that fall in the school holidays) of having issued written acknowledgement of the receipt of the complaint. They must explain clearly why they have come to the decision that they made. They must detail any agreed actions as a result of the complaint. Finally, they must provide the complainant with details of how to progress the complaint to stage three if they are not satisfied, providing them with the contact details of the chair of governors (see the end of the procedure for these).

Stage 3 – appeal – review by the Chair of the Governing Board.

If the complainant wishes to appeal a decision by the headteacher or deputy headteacher at stage 2 of the procedure, or they are not satisfied with the action that the headteacher or deputy headteacher took in relation to the complaint, the complainant is able to appeal this decision.

They must write to the chair of governors (see the contact details at the end of the procedure) as soon as possible after receiving notice of the headteacher's or deputy headteacher's decision, briefly outlining the content of the complaint and requesting that a complaints appeal panel is convened.

The chair of governors will review the initial complaint and meet with the complainant in order to get a greater understanding of the complaint. They may call upon the support from other members of the Governing Board for help and support or use an officer from Nottinghamshire County Council.

The complainant must request an appeal panel within 4 weeks of receiving the headteacher's or deputy headteacher's decision or it will not be considered, except in exceptional circumstances. On receipt of this written notification, the following steps will be followed:

1. The chair (or, if administration has been delegated, the clerk) will write to the complainant within five working days (not including the school holidays) to confirm receipt of the appeal request and detail further action to be taken.
2. The chair (or if appropriate a member of the Governing Board) will review all information generated by the complaint and the resulting findings from the investigation.
3. The chair of the Governing Board (or appointed Governing Board member) will consider all the information at hand and if required make further enquiries and carry out more interviews should they deem it necessary.
4. The complainant will be informed in writing of the outcome of the appeal within 5 working days (post the 30-day appeal as per stage 3) (excluding those which fall in the school holidays).
5. This is the final stage at which the school will consider the complaint. If the complainant remains dissatisfied and wishes to take the complaint further, please see the contact details at the end of the document. The school will not consider the complaint beyond this.

Unreasonable complaints

Where a complainant raises an issue that has already been dealt with via the school's complaints procedure, and that procedure has been exhausted, the school will not reinvestigate the complaint except in exceptional circumstances, for example where new evidence has come to light.

If a complainant persists in raising the same issue and it is deemed vexatious, the headteacher will write to them explaining that the matter has been dealt with fully in line with the school complaints procedure, and therefore the case is now closed. The complainant will be provided with the contact details of the Local Authority/Department for Education (see the end of this document) if they wish to take the matter further.

Unreasonable complaints include the following scenarios:

- The complainant refuses to co-operate with the school's relevant procedures.
- The complainant changes the basis of the complaint as the complaint progresses.
- The complainant seeks an unrealistic outcome.
- Excessive demands are made on the time of staff and school governors and it is clearly intended to aggravate.
- The complainant acts in a way that is abusive or offensive.

The headteacher will use their discretion to choose not to investigate these complaints. Where they decide to take this course of action, they must inform the chair of governors that they have done so, explaining the nature of the complaint and why they have chosen not to investigate. If the chair deems it appropriate, they can redirect the headteacher to investigate the complaint. The full complaints procedure will commence from stage one on this direction.

If the chair upholds the headteacher's decision not to look into the complaint and the complainant deems this decision to be so unreasonable that no other rational body in the same position would have made that decision, then the complainant may write to the Department for Education (see the contact details at the end of the document).

Contact details for external organisations if not satisfied with the outcomes of the complaints procedure in full.

- If you have any queries regarding any aspect of the complaints procedure, please direct these to the chair of governors by email at chair@willowbrookschool.co.uk.

- If the complainant remains dissatisfied with the outcome of the complaints procedure they may contact the local authority via the Nottinghamshire County Council website www.nottinghamshire.gov.uk
- If the complainant feels that the governing board acted 'unreasonably' in the handling of the complaint, they can complain to the Department for Education after the complaints procedure has been exhausted. Please note that 'unreasonable' is used in a legal sense and means acting in a way that no reasonable school or authority would act in the same circumstances. <https://www.gov.uk/complain-about-school>
